U.S.C.J., Sitting by Designation

Re: United States v. Jose Cabrera, 18 Cr. 66 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan,

I write, without objection from the government and the Probation Office ("Probation"), to respectfully request that the terms of Mr. Cabrera's supervised release be modified to permit him to travel to the Dominican Republic from October 6 through October 16, 2022. The purpose of Mr. Cabrera's trip is for a family vacation with his wife, children, mother, sisters and their children. If permitted, he will be staying at an address that has been provided to the government and Probation. Mr. Cabrera is fully vaccinated. To date, Mr. Cabrera has been fully compliant with all the terms of his supervised release and has no infractions. In respect to consenting to this application, while neither the government nor Probation object, the government defers to Probation and Probation defers to the Court.

Accordingly, we respectfully request that the Court modify the terms of Mr. Cabrera's supervised release to permit him to travel to the Dominican Republic from October 6 through October 16, 2022. I thank the Court for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Valerie A. Gotlib
